

EXHIBIT A

AFFIDAVIT OF ROBERT FLETCHER

I, ROBERT FLETCHER, do hereby depose and state as follows:

1. I am the principal of the Literary Agency Group, a company whose mission is to dedicate and provide quality services to authors.
2. We use the Internet as our primary vehicle for providing these services.
3. In the age of the Internet, the venue has become a key resource to authors everywhere; as such, our reputation in cyberspace is integral to our success.
4. The Defendants' publications are false and defamatory and have been devastating to our business.
5. I have had at least 100 potential clients, including those in Massachusetts, tell me that they were interested in doing business but have declined to due to the disparaging postings by the Defendants and I do hereby attest to the integrity of providing those reproductions of same as they are attached to the Motion papers.
6. I have also had several clients seek reimbursement of fees for services provided after finding these postings.
7. I estimate that these defamatory postings which have spread rampantly throughout cyberspace have cost us approximately $25,000 per month in lost revenue.
8. Thes defamatory publications posted by the Defendants have caused clear irreparable harm and will continue to do so if not removed.

SIGNED UNDER THE PAINS AND PENALTIES OF PERJURY:

ROBERT FLETCHER
